MISSION PROJECT

If you are interested in a mission project that you can do from home, Scott Griswold from Reach the World Next Door (ASAP) is looking for a volunteer who would be willing to work with his My Language, My Life (MLML) program. MLML publishes inspirational online stories, blogs, sermons, and documents in about 2000 languages in order to attract and reach non-Christians around the world. Scott wants someone who will read and highlight the best stories on the website (mlml.org) in English to direct readers to them. He also would like the volunteer to provide additional stories to share with readers that will inspire them to learn more about faith and trust in God. If you are interested in such a project and have skills in this area, please contact me or Scott Griswold (a distant cousin). Go to mlml.org/explore to see what kind of things are available on the website. Scott can be reached at scott@reachtheworldnextdoor.com to learn more about the project. Mike Garcia

Evangelism Trainer

Mike Garcia has spent a lifetime sharing his faith and leading others to Christ through missions, Bible studies, personal ministry, and church leadership. With nearly 40 years of experience as a cardiovascular perfusionist in heart surgery, he has mastered the art of workplace evangelism—demonstrating how faith can be effectively shared in any profession or setting.

Beyond his medical career, Mike is a passionate church planter with lay-pastor and evangelism training. His commitment to ministry extends to his roles as an Evangelism Trainer for the Georgia-Cumberland Conference and a Spiritual Care Coordinator for LifeMed Clinic, where he mentors and equips others in sharing their faith.

As the founder and president of Go Missions, a nonprofit ministry dedicated to evangelism "Across the Street and Around the World," Mike is committed to mobilizing believers to engage in soul-winning efforts both locally and globally. His leadership has inspired individuals and churches to embrace active outreach, fostering a culture of discipleship and mission-driven service.

Mike is blessed to share this journey with his wife, Karla. Together, they have four children and two grandchildren, forming a family deeply devoted to faith and service.
